

Group 1

Group work discussion questions:

1. What are the titles of the three films?
2. Who is starring in each film?
3. Can you see the director's name on the poster? If yes, who is it?
4. What / who can you see on the posters?
5. What is happening? / What are the characters doing?
6. What do you think is the common theme or element in the three films?

Group 2

Group work discussion questions:

1. What are the titles of the three films?
2. Who is starring in each film?
3. Can you see the director's name on the poster? If yes, who is it?
4. What / who can you see on the posters?
5. What is happening? / What are the characters doing?
6. What do you think is the common theme or element in the three films?

Group 3

Group work discussion questions:

1. What are the titles of the three films?
2. Who is starring in each film?
3. Can you see the director's name on the poster? If yes, who is it?
4. What / who can you see on the posters?
5. What is happening? / What are the characters doing?
6. What do you think is the common theme or element in the three films?

Group 4

Group work discussion questions:

1. What are the titles of the three films?
2. Who is starring in each film?
3. Can you see the director's name on the poster? If yes, who is it?
4. What / who can you see on the posters?
5. What is happening? / What are the characters doing?
6. What do you think is the common theme or element in the three films?