

To help you recapitulate the content of the video.

To recapitulate: to restate the main points of (an argument, speech, etc.); to summarize.

In your opinion, what can be the purpose of that video?

- To celebrate the 2010 World Cup and point out its positive impact on South Africa's economy?
- To paint a mixed picture of South Africa during the 2010 World Cup?
- To interview a leading/prominent South African figure on the state of the country?
- To contrast the festive atmosphere of the World Cup with less glitzy issues?
- To weigh the pros and cons of the policies set up after the end of apartheid / 16 years after the first democratic election?
- To interview South African leaders on their country's achievements?
- To take stock of the evolution of South Africa 16 years after the end of apartheid?
- To praise higher education for providing equal opportunities to all?
- To raise our awareness of the difficulties both blacks and whites may have to overcome?
- To point out that despite all the difficulties mentioned in the different testimonies, that country is evolving and there is hope for everyone?

Key words :

pressing needs - to set the debate aside - The Truth and Reconciliation Commission
- an outspoken person - a mixed verdict - glitzy malls - ANC= National African Congress - to improve dramatically - to succeed / to find success - to increase (≠ to decrease) - affirmative action (AA) - to scour the internet for a job - affluent 10 percent white minority - to struggle / a struggle - to complain - growing discontent - the aftermath of Mandela's passing - the people are upset - to be hard-wired (to ...)