

Invictus,
Directed by Clint Eastwood.

• The opening scene :

Observe the first minutes of the film and describe the scene:

Where does the scene take place? When?

What sport do black people play in this scene? What about the white people?

When Mandela's car passes by, the footballers are:

- quiet excited supportive angry

The rugby players are:

- happy indifferent impatient sad

Comment on their coach's reaction:

In his speech, Mandela says « Never, never and never again shall it be that this beautiful land will again experience the oppression of one to another. »

What does he want for his country?

👥 Discuss and react:

With your teammates, exchange your first impressions on the film:

👥 Imagine 5 questions you would have asked if you had interviewed Mandela in 1994.

