

Explain what the UK is composed of and locate one country in relation to another/the others.

- ✓ I know it
- ✓ I can say it

Linguistic tools I need: Scotland, United Kingdom, composed of, North of, next to.

Ex: UK is composed of Scotland, England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Scotland is north of England and Wales is next to England. (Lilia)

Give examples of the way each nation considers the others.

- ✓ I know it
- ✓ I can say it

Linguistic tools I need: get mocked for

Ex: Sometimes, the Scottish get mocked for their accent. (Toufic)

Summarise the main cultural characteristics of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

- ✓ I know it
- ✓ I can say it

Linguistic tools I need: most beautiful, such

Ex: Scotland is the most beautiful place for me. It has such a rich culture and also the greatest castle. (Belvia)

Explain and define what multiculturalism consists in in the UK.

- ✓ I know it
- ✓ I can say it

Linguistic tools I need: be part of, fit in

Ex: Many people of different countrys live in the UK and thanks to this multiculturalism the immigrants can be part of the UK and fit in British culture. (Joran)

- ✓ I know it
- ✓ I can say it

Linguistic tools I need: mix of cultures, traditions, bring together, share

Ex: Multiculturalism consist in bring together a mix of cultures and traditions in one country and people share the culture of the other people, like people of Pakistan for example. (Laetitia)