

A few tips to anticipate the content of the novel from THE BOOK COVERS

The book is perhaps/ probably / certainly a

We are quite sure it was written by..... but we wonder if / whether the author is Judging from 2 of the book covers, the main character must be.../ is likely to be.....

As in one of the book covers he is facing the right hand side, we can suppose / assume / believe / think

However on another cover he.....

The title leads us to think that

It is quite puzzling because

We have also noticed that the words '.....', '.....', and '.....' stand out so this could suggest / imply that

Since the title appears in a speech balloon / a speech bubble in one of the covers we can deduce that

Red and yellow prevail in 2 book covers. We discussed the choice of those two colors and we agreed to say that red may symbolize while yellow could connote either or

One of the covers reads 'a novel by Sherman Alexie'. This underlines / emphasizes the fact that

To sum up / In brief / in short / to put it in a nutshell, the plot must be about

..... Maybe the boy wishes / wants / dreams / hopes to

We can ask ourselves / wonder if / whether

Reading the book will provide us with answers!