

CHECKLIST FOR YOUR PHYSICAL SELF-PORTRAIT

Make sure:

- you can name all your body parts properly
- you know a wide range of adjectives referring to color, size, length, shape, quantity

Don't forget to:

- use comparisons and metaphors that are visually powerful
- emphasize certain words by writing them in italics
- repeat elements you want to insist on / to hammer in

Your physical self portrait must be revealing of your personality, of who you are, of your relationships with others (your family / friends / acquaintances / teachers / coaches / ...), of your background.

Make sure that the tone is appropriate (casual or even colloquial but not improper – humorous and vivid) and address the reader as a potential interlocutor (use questions, interjections, anticipate questions or remarks, etc.)