

Séquence MAORI TATTOS

ANNEXE 1

1) Watch the video (0:00 - 0:18) and complete the grid :

Physical description (4)	PLACE/COUNTRY (3)	JOB (3)
tattoo	set	Journalist
long hair	TV	News
woman	New Zealand	Anchorwoman
Red jumper

2) Watch the video again and write keywords about :

The anchorwoman : (name, tattoo) 0:17 - 0:34 :

Ta moko (history) : 0:34 - 0:52:

Maori culture : 0:52 - 1:04 :

3) In groups, write a sentence to recap what you know about the video and prepare your radio chronicle.

ANNEXE 2

II

Watch the video again and write a title and a subtitle for each part of the report.

0:17 - 0:34

Title :

Subtitle :

0:34 - 0:52

Title :

Subtitle :

0:52 - 1:04

Title :

Subtitle :

ANNEXE 3

II/ Maori tattoos!

Read the text and answer the questions to discover more about the Maori tattoo tradition.

Tattooing is an integral part of the Maori culture. The traditional Maori tattoo practice is known as ta moko.

Since the head is believed to be the most sacred part of the body by the Maori, ta moko was most often done on the face.

These traditional tattoos involve the use of symbols and patterns to depict someone's personality.

1/ What's the Maori name for tattooing?

2/ Find the body parts where tattoos are done :

.....

3/ Why?

4/ What do tattoos represent?

ANNEXE 4

1) Read the descriptions and highlight the words linked to each symbol or pattern. Ex : Koru

Spiral - Koru

Koru takes the shape of a simple spiral. It means growth, new beginnings, and harmony. Each spiral can also represent a family member or loved one.

Fish hook- Hei Matau

It means prosperity and good health. Through its obvious connection with the ocean, this symbol also means safe journey over water.

Single twist - Pīkorua

The twist is a symbol for eternity and the path of life.

Double and triple twists

The twists are symbolic of unity between two people, groups, or cultures. It symbolizes eternal love and friendship.

Pakati

This pattern is symbolic of warriors. Pakati also symbolizes the attributes related to warriors: courage, strength, and honor.

Hikuaua

The hikuaua pattern represents prosperity - a concept closely associated with fish and abundance of food in Maori history.

Ahu ahū mātaroa

This pattern symbolizes talent and achievement in sport and athleticism. In addition, it can also mean a fresh challenge.

Taratarekae

The triangles are a reference to whale teeth, and the pattern symbolizes sensitivity and strength.

ANNEXE 5

2) Read the descriptions and match the characters with a corresponding symbol and a pattern to create their tattoo!

Symbol :

Pattern :

Moana

She loves her friends and family and she is very sensitive and strong.

Symbol :

Pattern :

The grandmother

She had a very long life and she became a spirit for all eternity. She was very prosperous.

Symbol :

Pattern :

The chief

He is looking for harmony and peace, and he is adventurous, always ready for a new challenge.

Symbol :

Pattern :

Maui

He is an immortal god, he is close to the ocean. He is a fierce warrior, honorable and courageous.

Create your own Maori tattoo !

Choose one symbol and two patterns, draw your tattoo and write a sentence to explain how your tattoo represents your personality.

My symbol :

My patterns :

My tattoo :

ANNEXE 6

1) Kuhukuhu Tamati was a tattoo artist.

Was Kuhukuhu a man or a woman ?

When did Kuhukuhu work ? (century)

2) Listen carefully and write the words related to the past tense (-ed).

Part 1 4:00-4:20 :

Part 2 10:00-10:20 :

History : women and tattoos.

3) Raise your hand whenever you hear the following words :

gifted - called - changed - inscribed - feminised

4) Sort the words in the correct category depending on the pronunciation of the final -ed :

t

id

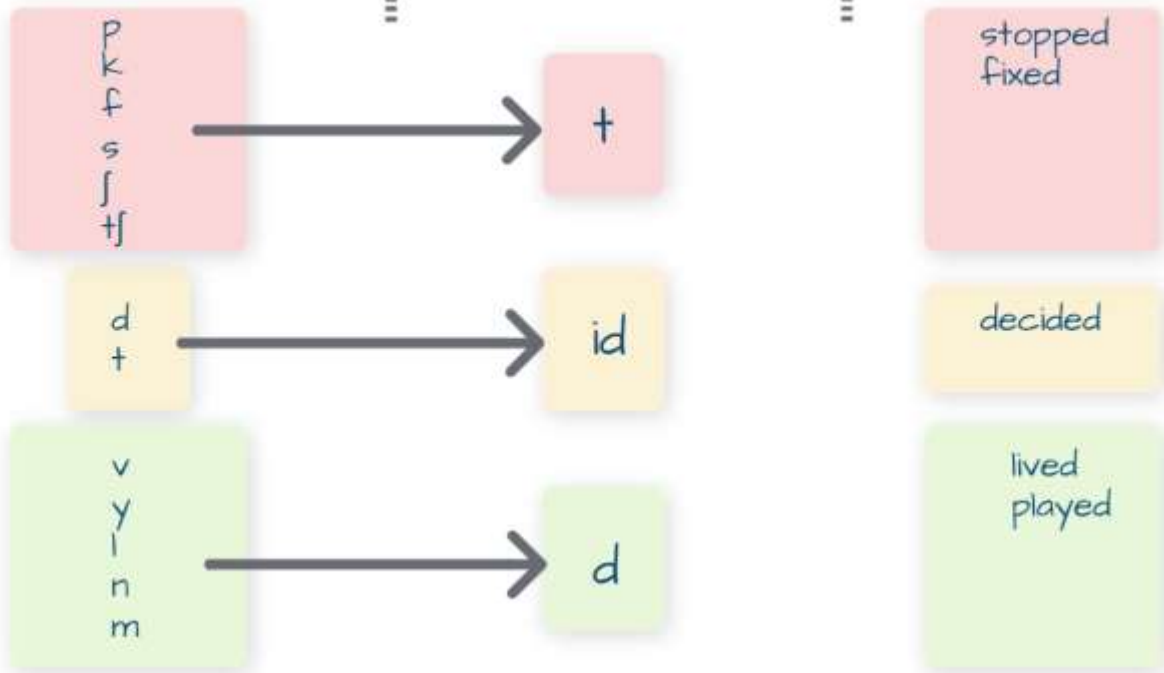

d

ANNEXE 7

Lorsque le son
final du verbe est :

-ed se prononce :

EXEMPLE :

Analyse le son précédant le "ED" final puis classe les en fonction de leur prononciation au prétérit :

laughed - called - happened - imprisoned - suspected - washed - watched - missed - respected

t

id

d

preterit / pronunciation Player 1

- lis les bases verbales à ton partenaire.

Il/Elle doit prononcer la forme conjuguée au preterit du verbe.

- Si la prononciation est juste (tu as la correction entre parenthèses) cocher la case d'un "tick", sinon cocher la case avec une croix.

	ESSAI 1	ESSAI 2	ESSAI 3
STOP (T)
ACCEPT (id)
REBEL (d)
COLLECT (id)

ANNEXE 8

Final Task

You know everything you need to know about Maori tattoos, it's time to write the script of your radio chronicle for the school press club!

In groups, write a text about the Maori tattoo tradition.

Explain the origins of the tradition (3 lines), the symbols and patterns (3 lines) and the special case of the anchorwoman (3 lines).

Use the preterit tense when needed.

Prepare yourself to read your article out loud for the school radio!